ONCE IN A LIFETIME SOMETHING SCARCE COULD BECOME YOUR LEGACY

Last large parcel of wilderness within Katmai National Park in Southwest Alaska; Main Lodge, Guest Cabins, and 120 private acres in a remote and breathtaking area. Bordering three lakes, two ideal for float planes, and is within walking distance of a large flowing river that supports a large and healthy population of world class wild Rainbow Trout, plus all five species of Salmon. Suited for any corporation, business, or private entity, wishing to possess an out-of-the-ordinary wilderness retreat that will provide endless opportunities to relax and enjoy a multitude of outdoor activities. Owners are retiring after fully realizing their dream . . . which could now become your dream, the one that keeps on giving for generations.
